

Little Dalton®

Education led by teachers, examinations, and grades can produce excellent students, but not necessarily great learners. Great learners are driven by internal motivation, which can only be inculcated by giving students appropriate autonomy, responsibilities, and opportunities for cooperation in their learning.

Such is the basis of the famed Dalton Plan, one of the most successful child-centered teaching models in the world. Hong Kong will soon have a Little Dalton Kindergarten, a truly bilingual (Putonghua and English) kindergarten guided by the Dalton Plan and modeled after The Dalton School in New York, a world renowned school which is ranked among the top 15 prep schools in the U.S.¹

I am not led, I lead

To introduce the Little Dalton Kindergarten and the innovative Dalton teaching scheme, you are cordially invited to join us at our upcoming seminar:

Date: Friday, 2nd November, 2012

Time: 7.30 to 9.30pm

Venue: 35F, Central Plaza, 18 Harbour Road, WanChai

Keynote Speaker: Jim Best, Associate Head of School and Director of Teaching, Learning, Curriculum and Innovation (The Dalton School, New York, USA)

Speaker: • Beverley McGaw, Educational Consultant (former Head of Development, Ascham School, Sydney, Australia; published author; Dalton Plan practitioner)

• Kris Chow, Founding Director (Little Dalton Kindergarten)

The seminar is free but space is limited. Registration is on a first-come first-served basis. To register, please email your name, telephone number, and number of seats required to info@littledalton.com. For any questions, please visit www.littledalton.com or call +852 2792 2566.

¹ 2010 Forbes Magazine survey